Department of Theatre/University Theatre

Alums Come Home VI; Call For Proposals

The Department of Theatre and University Theatre are seeking proposals from Alumni to direct a play during the 2013 spring semester to coincide with the department's celebration of Alums Come Home VI.

The department is specifically looking for expertise from our alumni not currently represented by our faculty. The preference is for alums with an educational background and expertise in physical theatre but all proposals will be considered. In this context, we are defining physical theatre as incorporating physical and visual elements on a level at least equal to verbal elements, including a wide variety of styles, approaches, and aesthetics. It can include, but is not limited to, commedia, movement theatre, clown, mime, mask, vaudeville, and circus.

Relevant Dates:

Auditions: November 2012

Tentative Beginning Rehearsal Date: January 22, 2013

Tentative Performance Dates: March 1, 2, 3, 8, 9, 10, 2013.

Required Qualifications:

- Must hold a University of Kansas degree in Theatre and/or Theatre and Film and/or related field.
- Demonstrated proficiency in directing
- Ability to be in residence in Lawrence, KS
- Evidence of ability to collaborate

Preferred Qualifications:

- Teaching and directing at the college/university level
- Additional education and training in commedia dell' arte

Proposals:

- Please bear in mind the University Theatre strives for balance in regards to gender casting.
- Proposals should include a letter of interest, resume, and completed University Theatre proposal form available at <http://sites.google.com/site/ukantheatre/>
